

I hope that the FCC will intervene in Sinclair Broadcasting's order to their local station - mandating airing of a clearly political message in the film "Stolen Honor". I resent that a private company can take over public airways - not to serve the public with news but for political partisanship. The FCC must intervene and stop this blatant abuse.